Abstract

Verrel Hughes was born around 1936, was raised by his parents in Louisa, along with two sisters. He attended Applegrove Elementary School, Applegrove High School, and Louisa County High School and graduated in 1954. During that time, Mr. Hughes worked at a tomato cannery and helped out at his mother's country store. After he graduated from high school, Mr. Hughes served in the army and worked as a surveyor. He also played on local baseball teams.
